Georgetown, Indiana

1961 Bearcat Staff

The Bearcat Staff of 1961 wishes to extend its sincere appreciation to those individuals who have subscribed to our yearbook, to those who have used our pages to advertise their wares, and to those who have so freely and willingly given of their time and talent in an advisory capacity. It is our sincere hope and aim that our Bearcat will bring back many fond and happy memories of the days spent in your Alma Mater, Georgetown High.

Dedication

Dear Mrs. Toole and Mr. Moore

Throughout our days at Georgetown High we have been very fortunate to have had your guidance. Your unlimited patience and understanding have contributed much to the joys and tribulations we have shared, to the unfaltering trust you have placed in us, to the priceless values we have received during our sojourn here. To show our love and sincere appreciation we proudly dedicate to you, Mrs. Toole and Mr. Moore, our Bearcat.

Band

The Georgetown Band of 1960-61 represents a dedicated group of experienced young musicians. The students in grade seven through twelve have been playing for many years, having started their training in the fourth grade. Throughout the school year the band performs class A band literature and maintains a high degree of performance capability.

Glee Club

This year the Glee Club consisted of 33 members. It is an organization that each year participates in the Thanksgiving Service of the community, gives a Christmas Program, sings for P. T. A. meetings, gives an annual Spring Concert, and participates in the Baccalaureate Service.
